

Uptick Curated

November Edition

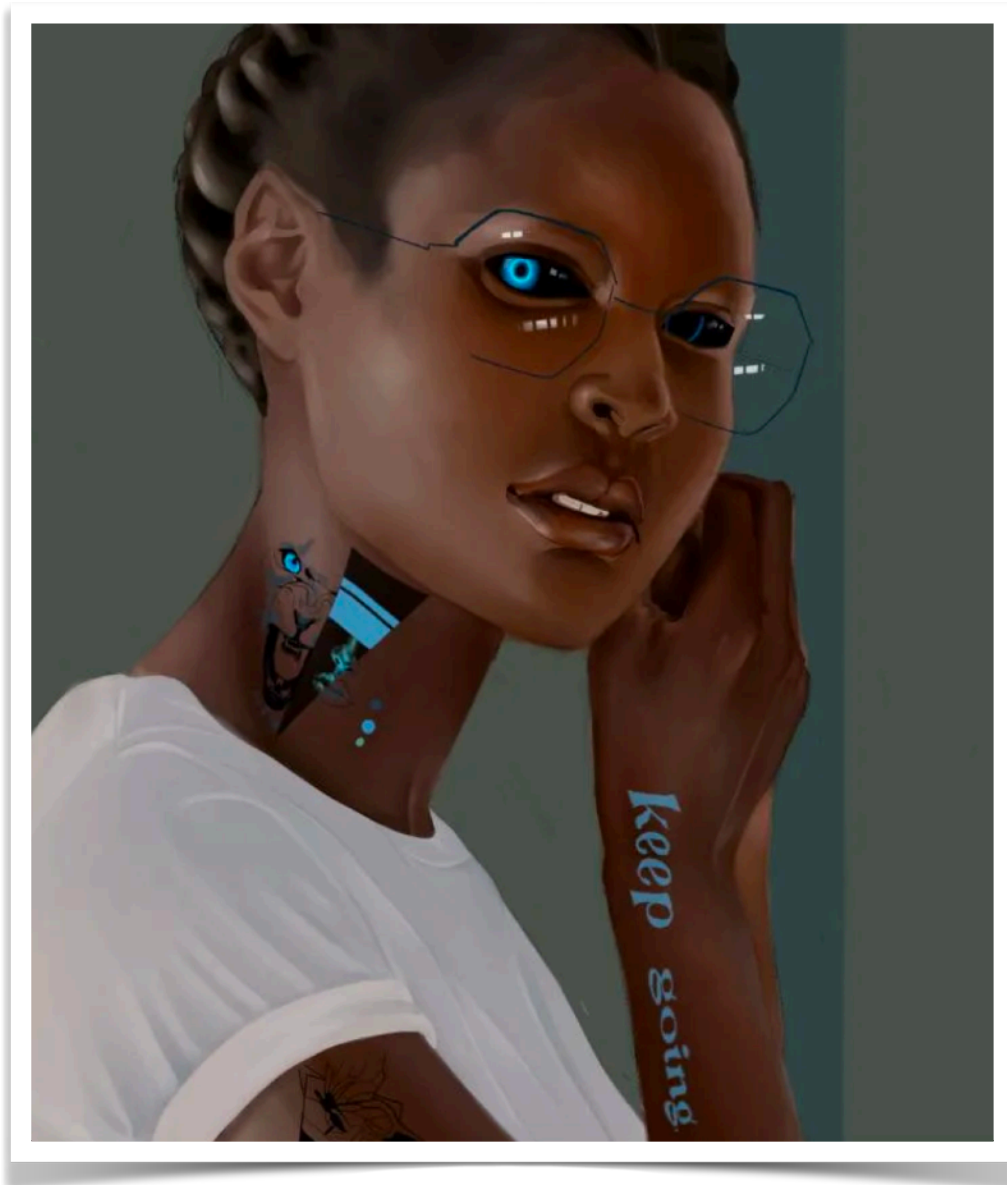

Uptick Curated is a chance to showcase some of the wonderful and talented creators from the Uptick Ecosystem. Each month we pick some of our favorites and share with the community.

We've been on the hunt for our favorite creations again, so let's get stuck into this month's edition!

Blue Sight | Moonredark

Blue Light by Moonredark blends sleek cyberpunk aesthetics with a powerful portrait. The vibrant white walker-esque eyes and intricate tattoo details draw the viewer's attention, creating a sharp contrast against the muted tones. The subtle interplay of reflections and futuristic design elements really brings a sense of depth and quiet intensity to the piece.

Mount Kerinci | The Marda Picture

Mount Kerinci by The Marda Picture captures the majestic volcano rising above lush, patterned fields, seamlessly blending the structured green tea plantations with the rugged, mist-shrouded peak. The atmospheric haze really adds a sense of mystery and grandeur, drawing the viewer into the scene and creating an almost otherworldly feel.

William S Burroughs | The Spilt Ink

William S Burroughs by The Spilt Ink blends vibrant colors with bold, expressive linework, capturing the writer's iconic features in a striking pop-art style. The chaotic, splattered background really adds energy to the piece, contrasting against the somber, lined face and giving it a raw, dynamic feel.

Garden of the Gods | TB Murphy

Garden of the Gods by TB Murphy showcases the dramatic, towering rock formations set against a lush landscape. We loved how the vibrant red stone really stands out against the greenery, creating a striking contrast that captures the natural beauty of the scene.

I Fought the Law | Chrispy

I Fought the Law by Chrispy captures a candid street moment with a blend of humor and everyday life. The scene, featuring a food vendor chatting with a police officer, really highlights the lively dynamic of urban Bangkok, with the contrasting colors of the street food cart, vehicles, and elevated tracks creating a vibrant backdrop, giving the photo a playful yet authentic feel.

Magical Eye #003 | Falbium Riser

Magical Eye #003 by Falbium Riser offers an intimate macro close-up shot of the human eye, capturing every tiny detail with stunning clarity. The reflection within the iris really draws you in, adding a sense of depth and almost making you feel as though you're peering into another world.

Bears in Paris | Chiplis

Bears in Paris by Chiplis presents a Disney-like scene of a teddy bear gazing up at the illuminated Eiffel Tower. The soft glow of the tower's lights really contrasts with the dark, starry sky, creating a dreamy, nostalgic atmosphere, and we loved how the composition feels both playful and reflective, capturing a sense of wonder that invites viewers to pause and take in the serene moment.

Afterglow | BAYLINS

Afterglow by BAYLINS captures a solitary figure bathed in a warm, orange light, framed against a dark, shadowy backdrop. The grainy texture really enhances the film-like quality, evoking a sense of quiet introspection. A brilliantly minimalist composition with soft silhouettes that give the piece an intimate, nostalgic feel.

Pink Eyes | Arak1ba

Pink Eyes by Arak1ba showcases a surreal cybernetic figure with intricate mechanical details and a striking color palette. The vibrant blue and pink tones really pop against the muted background, adding a sense of tension to the piece, and the expressive, haunting face contrasts with the cold, robotic elements, blending organic and synthetic in a way that feels both unsettling and captivating.

Terrible Lie | Dylan Furfari

Terrible Lie by Dylan Furfari combines layered textures and bold, chaotic strokes, creating a dynamic, abstract composition. The interplay of vibrant greens and splashes of red against the fragmented patterns really gives the piece a raw, unfiltered energy, and we thought the mixed-media style was great.
